

Lelia Ho is a racing member of the Hong Kong Jockey Club and she is passionate about horses since she was a teenager. Lelia graduated from the University of Newcastle, Australia and had achieved a gold medal with the Alumni Award for being outstanding.

She is an experienced banker and has been working in the private banking industry for over 20 years. She is now an Executive Director with Credit Suisse Greater China Team in which she joined in 2010.

Lelia Ho on a riding school pony during her Bali trip.