

Rosemary is a businesswoman and an avid horse owner / enthusiast for the last fifteen years. Her passion for horses started during the days when she resided in Melbourne, Australia. She grew up near Flemington Racecourse, a bustling neighbourhood surrounded by horse racing, horse owners and other horse-related activities.

Back in Singapore, she has enjoyed the sports of horse racing including owning several racehorses since 1994. She was the former Treasurer in the TOAST Committee for 2004 and 2005.
